

Security Systems Service Engineer – North West

Catchpoint (UK) Ltd are looking to recruit an experienced Security Systems Engineer to cover the North West of England.

Reporting to the Service Manager your duties include the service and maintenance of Security Systems, including, Intruder Alarms, CCTV Systems, Fire Alarms, Emergency Lights, EAS Tagging and Tannoy systems.

Engineer Role & Responsibilities

- Cover your area for faults and maintenance
- Flexibility to cover work during holidays, sickness cover & busy periods in neighbouring areas
- To cover out of hours and weekend callout on a rota system
- Complete work and paperwork to company and NSI standards
- Liaise with Service Administration Team to arrange work and any issues on site
- Keep company vehicle clean and tidy
- Ensure carrying correct car stock to ensure first time fix where possible
- Have a valid UK Driving Licence and adhere to the company's driving policy

The position offers:-

- Full time position (37.5 hour week)
- Salary of £18,000 – £26,000 (depending on experience) + overtime and on-call payments.
- Holiday entitlement is 22 days per year plus bank holidays
- A company vehicle, mobile phone and laptop
- Support and training on products and systems when required
- Pension Scheme and Death in Service Policy (after 3 months service)

To apply please forward your current Curriculum Vitae to waynebaron@catchpointuk.co.uk